Early Childhood
UNIVERSITY of ALASKA ANCHORAGE

The Early Childhood program at UAA blends theory and practice in the preparation of early childhood educators who can deliver quality care and education for young children from birth through age eight. Emphasis on early literacy and culturally responsive teaching practices in Alaska.

AMAZING STORIES BEING WRITTEN EVERY DAY.

Early Childhood Education Fact Sheet

With a shortage of qualified Early Childhood (EC) educators across Alaska and the nation, UAA's programs meet the needs of high demand careers. The OEC is an easy entry to the university where students earn a workforce development certificate in infant and toddler development with only 18 credits. These credits lead into the AAS in Early Childhood Development (birth-age 8). The AAS then leads into the BA in Early Childhood Education as a 2 + 2 model. Both the OEC and the AAS qualify graduates for positions in child-care and other early education organizations. A BA with teacher licensure provides graduates with even more opportunities, including teaching in public schools PreK-3rd grades and other leadership roles in the field of early care and learning.

The Early Childhood programs are meeting needs of today's workforce while using innovative teaching strategies for tomorrow.

Highlights of Early Childhood Programs:

- Pathways – OEC >AAS >BA - Creates multiple career pathways for graduates to include positions in public schools, Early Head Start/Head Start Programs, military approved child-care facilities, tribally approved child-care systems, and early intervention programs such as Parents, Infants, and Children, the Infant Learning Program (ILP), and RurAL CAP.
- Accreditation: The AAS is nationally accredited by the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC) through spring 2025. The BA will seek accreditation through both NAEYC and CAEP.
- Licensure – UAA's program will be the only Pre-K through 3rd grade initial licensure option in the State of Alaska.
- Employment - 100% of graduates who sought employment in the Early Childhood field have been hired (past 7 years).
- Early Literacy focus – All of UAA EC programs have a strong emphasis in language and literacy development. The content is scaffolded with emphasis on development, foundations, theory, strategies, implementation, and assessment.
- Field Experience – All three programs emphasize real world practice with opportunities in childcare settings, public school settings, and community agencies including Head Start. Students who complete all three programs will have nearly 1000 hours of field experience.
- Delivery - EC faculty have a strong commitment to serving the educational needs of our diverse student population with both face-to-face and distance/hybrid course options.
- Diversity and Inclusion – We take pride in our student population. In AY 2019-2020 the EC program was 57% non-white reflecting the larger Alaskan population.
- Innovation and Learning – Meeting needs for Alaska through Creativity, Communication, Collaboration, and Critical Thinking (21st Century Learning and Innovation 4C skills).

Formative Assessment

Student Teacher Roles & Behaviors

- Student Teacher and Host Teacher determine the content for the month together. Each plans lessons and facilitates own lessons.
- Teach/facilitate a minimum of three lessons (either small or large group) per day. You may teach/facilitate half day if you and Host Teacher agree. Host Teacher will help you determine the lesson and the content.
- Become knowledgeable in three content areas (science, math, reading, etc.). Begin seeing how the progression of concepts and idea go together in day-to-day lessons.
- Observe Host Teacher during transition times.
- Observe Host Teacher work with challenging behaviors. Ask Host Teacher for suggested behaviors of individual child needs. Assist or step in to support these children with special needs before Host Teacher asks if necessary.
- Student Teacher should be able to jump in – and take over!
- Begin to plan for your residency. Discuss your ideas with your Host Teacher.

Host Teacher Roles & Behaviors

- Discuss your planning process with your Student Teacher. Listen to and include your Student Teacher's ideas particularly the lessons the Student Teacher is teaching/facilitating.
- Support Student Teacher in learning about three content areas (this could be the same content/lesson the Student Teacher is teaching). Have the Student Teacher teach half day, if you feel it is appropriate. Help the Student Teacher understand how the content flows from day to day and lesson to lesson.
- Team-teach some lessons or plan lessons that the Student Teacher can take over after you begin them.
- Discuss transition times.
- Discuss the strategies you use with challenging behaviors. Suggest specific behaviors for the Student Teacher to watch for in individual children.
- Support Student Teacher with the planning process but Student Teacher should lead. Allow Student Teacher to make mistakes. You may want to offer suggestions.
- Leave the classroom for short periods of time (30-60 minutes).
- Begin to plan for your Student Teacher's Residency. Share plans, ideas, etc...
